Blogging

Please encourage your child to access the new website blogs for their new projects.

Reception children will be given Logins and passwords after the holiday but can still look at their reception page.
Thank you!

Golden Book

Entries in the Golden Book are no longer a feature of our newsletters but rest assured they are still happening and the Golden Book is always available during our Parent Drop-In Sessions

The Play equipment is being installed over the holiday period. Please do not allow your children to stand and watch—it is a building site with heavy machinery and for this one week it is not a playground. Thank you for your co-operation.
