Weekly Newsletter

Supporting your child's learning at home.

There are lots of ways to support your child with their learning. The most successful children are those that are well supported at home.

'Support' can take various guises:

- Ensuring your child is well organised with the correct kit and resources for school
- Remembering swimming kit on the correct day, returning reply slips.
- Reading with your child regularly whatever their age. Sharing books and raising the profile of reading.
- Helping your child log on to the website so they can blog
- Visiting a library or researching projects online
- From Year 1—help your children learn their spellings each week little and often works best!
- Can your child tell the time? Use everyday routines to practise telling the time and solving problems.
- Support your child with money. Can they recognise the coins? Can they calculate the correct costs and the change?
- Reducing screen time: make sure screen time is kept to a minimum. Can children complete their home learning before going on screen time?
- Keep technology out of the bedroom
- Plenty of sleep!

Please do come and speak to us if you require support yourself or any further ideas of how to engage your child at home.

"The research is overwhelmingly clear: when parents play a positive role in their children's education, students do better in school"

Education is a shared commitment between dedicated teachers, motivated students and enthusiastic parents with high expectations.

If you read just one book a day to your child, they will have been read 1825 books by their 5th birthday.

Every Book Counts

Medical Appointments

Please make any routine medical appointments including dental check ups after school hours or during school holidays.

Proof of any appointments will need to be seen by the office so we can provide school exit permits. Without proof of appointment we will not authorise.

Value of the Week: COURAGE Can you child demonstrate this value at home?

VOLUNTEER READERS

Thank you to our fantastic team of volunteer readers. They give up their own time to come in and read with those children that don't get the opportunity to read to an adult regularly at home.

If you would like to become a volunteer reader and can spare half an hour from 2.40-3.10 any day of the week please leave your details with the office.

MANY THANKS!

Summer Fair..... Can you help?

We are starting to plan our Summer Fair and want to build on the success of last years. If you can offer anything for on the day please email us or catch Mrs G in the playground.

We will be asking for volunteers nearer the time. At this stage we are booking events, entertainment and stalls. Thank you for your support.
