

The Oaks CP School Newsletter

Monday 25th April 2016

A very big "THANK YOU!" to Bolton Web Designers who kindly donated cycle helmets for our Reception children. As you can see they are now all safely kitted out and enjoying learning on wheels again!

A lot of your children will enjoy reading the stories written by Jacqueline Wilson. However it has come to our attention that some of the subject matter is only suitable for much older children and can be quite upsetting for a younger audience. We are checking our library stock, and ask you to do the same at home, looking for books that have "for older readers" in quite small print on the back of the book. We are removing these books. If you have one at home that belongs to school please ask your child to hand it back to an adult.

Thank you.
