

As readers and Writers we can:

Produce a persuasive argument on whether children should work.
Write a report about schools then and now.
Write a letter to Queen Victoria about changing children's working conditions.

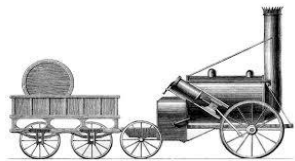

As Citizens We can:

Know what having rights means.
Be aware of our rights of children.
Understand the significance of The Children's Act.
Recognise the importance of the work of the charity Banardos.

As an artist we can:

Explore printing in the Victorian Era.
Look at the work of William Morris and Andy Warhol as artists.
Sketch Victorian buildings and other objects.

Key Learning Skills.

Researching, being more independent in your learning, Creating new knowledge, Collaborative working.

The Oaks Primary School
Bringing Learning to Life

The Victorians Year 3

Would you rather be a child in the Victorian times or nowadays?

VICTORIANS

As computer users we can:

Use algorithms to control objects on screen and make changes.
Demonstrate awareness and understand the importance of E safety

As Thinkers:

The Disadvantages.
The What if

As Geographers we can:

Recognise the importance of waterways in developing trade links during Victorian times, especially Eagley Brook and Manchester Ship Canal.

As Mathematicians we can:

Look at the abacus and see how the Victorians used it in number work.
Learn our 8 times tables.

As Historians we can:

Place Victorian events into chronological order.
Use dates and vocabulary related to the Victorian Era.
Recognise why children had to work in the Victorian Times and what they had to do.
Identify and explain differences between school in the Victorian Times and now.
Identify and explain differences between how life was back then and how life is now.
Describe how some of the inventions and events from the Victorian Era affect life today.
Use a range of resources, (books, videos, Internet) to research and compare the lives of different people in Victorian Times.
Answer and ask the question "What was it like for a child during the Victorian Era?"
Explore the lives of significant people from The Victorian Times including Queen Victoria, Young children and workers.